Layout

1. Remove the right rail completely: the grey column, the “Selected Product(s)” card, and the “Questions?” phone block.
2. Make the main column a single centered column, about 640px max width, with 16px side padding on mobile.

Selected product section

3. Change the H1 text from “Confirm Your Product(s)” to “You are opening:”.
4. Remove the intro paragraph (p.title-text, “You have selected to open the below account(s). Does everything look good?”).
5. Center the product name label (.product-name, for example “Everything Checking”).
6. Remove “Show More Options” from the selected product.

Recommendation section

7. Change the heading from “Recommended Saving Accounts” to “Add a savings account?” and center it.
8. Change the intro copy to “Now is the perfect time to open a savings account. Would you like to add this option?” and center it.
9. Set the intro text color to #5a6b78, which is about 5.5:1 contrast on white and passes WCAG AA.
10. Show only one recommended product, the first ID in data-recommended, and center its product name.
11. Remove the per-card “+ Add” button.
12. Place “Show More Options” under the recommended product card. It should reveal the other products in data-recommended.

Actions

13. Rename the primary “Next” button to “Add Recommendation”. It should add the displayed recommended product and then continue to the next step.
14. Add a text link, “No, thanks — continue”, centered directly below the primary button. It should continue to the next step without adding the recommendation. Style: 18px, bold, brand blue (#2774ae).

Disclosure

15. Center the “APY Disclosure” heading.
16. Add a 1px light rule above the disclosure block (#e3e7ea).
